

My Friend!
George Kohler, formerly manager of Albany branch post office and postmaster for Berkeley, 1963, is dead. A gentle and a gentleman, George was a good friend. It was flat when he asked for a letter of recommendation for the post office's job. It was thrilling among those present at his funeral in ceremony. He joined the charity as Berkeley chairman of the March of Dimes, and he held until his death. He was a member of the board of directors of Albany Red Cross chapter. If he had him in print for some time, he imagined problem with postal service, he always wrote or set up a demonstration to explain. A big man with a shock of white hair and a friendly smile in the room where he was, George had been suffering from heart trouble in recent months, but a respiratory disease caused his death. Sympathy to his wonderful friend. He will be missed.

WE can do better by the newly-elected officers of Albany Rotary club are (Chuck) Silveira, president; Sturgeon, secretary; and Healy, treasurer. Chuck, manager of Albany branch of Bank of America, is with Pacific Gas and Electric, and Roger, who is Albany rep for Pacific Telephone company. Albany doesn't really have an in-bash. What they do is a demonstration party for the president, who is Alameda Administrative Officer Jim. This year, believe that's in June with new officers in command in July.

PARENTS of Paul Brown, anxious to contact a young man who brought Paul home to the lost control of his big Albany Hill and had an accident. He suffered multiple lacerations to his face and forehead and was in their blanket and brought him home. In the confusion, the parents didn't get a chance to thank them or return a blanket. Whoever you are, call 831-1.

Council Cuts Personnel--No Money

Tight money due to the present financial problems Albany is facing, caused the lack of majority vote by the Albany City Council at the regular meeting Monday night, for the recommended appointment of a probationary fireman to replace one who is leaving the department.

Councilman Lewis Howell and Councilman George Hein voted for the appointment, stressing the point that services of the Albany Fire Department are stretched thin as it is; with, as Howell pointed out, the responsibility of Golden Gate Fields—a maximum source of income for the City, inhalator and emergency first aid for citizens, added to regular fire and disaster protection. "The people I talk to want good service," said Howell. Hein concurred.

Councilman Richard Clark cited the drop in census within the city as one reason he felt a tighter budget wouldn't jeopardize the safety offered with a cut-back in departmental personnel. Mayor Hubert F. Call said more money was the answer and suggested a four month waiting period until the new budget was resolved.

A call for the vote showed Councilman Joe Carlevaro and Clark obtaining, Mayor Call voting negatively and Howell and Hein voting for employing the new fireman.

Other business included the issuance of a permit for the upcoming Veterans' Day parade; a request for funds by the East Bay Chapter National Safety Council referred to the budget session, granting the request by Frederick L. Ehrman, National Chairman UN Day, for the name of a community chairman—Mayor Call will make the appointment, and April 19 set for the public hearing for Beautification assessment.

The Council adjourned in a silent minute of respect in the memory of Berkeley-Albany Postmaster George Kohler.

Deadline For Reunion

Reservations will be taken through March 12 for the Golden Anniversary reunion of Troop 19 of Berkeley, to be held on March 19 at the Northbrae Community Church, Los Angeles and The Alameda, Berkeley.

The reunion will honor Troop 19 Scouts and families, past and present, with special tribute to the Scoutmasters who have served the troop these 50 years. The first Eagle Scout or the troop and the most recent will be present. A catered dinner is planned, preceded by a reminiscing hour. Efforts are being made to get in touch with past members of the troop and their families. Contact Lee Seidell at 958 Ordway, Albany, or Ralph Smith at 1740 Madera, Berkeley, for further information.

Jaycees Meet Tonight

The Albany Jaycees will meet tonight at the Blue Mill Restaurant at 7:30 with speakers from the Santa Rosa Jaycees with their subject: "Presentation of a Junior Miss Program."

President Charles Call will chair the dinner meeting, which is open to all young men between the ages of 21 to 35. Jack Dempster, program chairman, will introduce the visiting speakers.

Local Family Honored by Church Group

The Thousand Oaks Baptist Church congregation honored the Dale Johnson family with a farewell dinner party.

The festivities of the day began when Kristen and Leanne were presented with corsages at Sunday School to wear for the day.

The best description of the evening is expressed by the Johnson family, Dale, Leanne, Terry, Jeff, Kristin and Lars, in their "bread 'n butter" letter of thanks to the church:

"The skit was certainly the highlight of the evening for us. With such talent available for writing, singing, playing, acting and speaking, what could have been a sad occasion became a true delight—an evening we can remember by pictures for a long time.

"We deeply appreciate the very generous check from the church and also the new guest book, signed by all, to start us off in our new home. We hope many of you will be able to visit us and sign it again as you travel to Southern California.

"Dale's new office will be at home so the black and gold desk clock is a welcome first addition to a bare desk. And of course anyone who works for the M&M Board should start his new job with 7 pounds of M&M candy. How we laughed about that!

"Terry will get a lot of use of his game and Jeff can keep an accurate score with his new fountain pen. Kristen and Lars have had the beautiful books read to them several times already and they both have a real awareness of the love which went with the gifts.

March Is Red Cross Month Red Cross Fund Drive Opens With Daughtry At the Local Helm

MARCH HAS BEEN PROCLAIMED Red Cross Month for the City of Albany and witnessing the signing of the proclamation by Mayor Hubert F. Call are Claude Daughtry, Red Cross chairman of the Albany-Berkeley chapter, and Jeff Shea of Albany, an active student participant in Red Cross youth programs serving underprivileged children.

This week, the Berkeley-Albany Red Cross Chapter joined a nationwide American Red Cross appeal for members and funds.

Clarene A. Bullwinkel heads the area effort to raise $66,359—the difference between this year's curtailed fund allotment from the United Bay Area Crusade and the amount necessary to maintain present Red Cross services.

Commenting on the urgency of the fund campaign, Claude Daughtry, Berkeley-Albany Red Cross chairman, noted that while the Chapter has been expanding its programs to meet pressing community needs, it had also been called upon to help meet unprecedented expenditures for disaster relief.

Quoting from a bulletin received from national Red Cross headquarters, Daughtry said:

"The urgency of the need for disaster relief funds is graphically evidenced by the fact that the Red Cross disaster budget of $10 million has already been depleted, and we have expended or committed an additional $7 million for disaster relief. This includes an estimated $1 million for victims of the Southern California earthquake."

"The Berkeley Hills fire last fall and the Los Angeles earthquake brought home the importance of keeping Red Cross financially able to meet any such emergency," he added.

More than 1600 Red Cross volunteers are working in community programs serving disadvantaged youth, lonely older people, the mentally handicapped and the blind, and more than 1900 servicemen's families have received Red Cross services during the year.

This month Red Cross volunteers are opening Berkeley's first

Creative Living Center, mentally disturbed. They also been serving 93 patients in board and care on a regular basis.

An active Red Cross program involving 654 volunteers, 12 and 21 years of age, given young people an opportunity to express their concerns through helping community.

Five thousand certificates have been issued to people taken formal classes in water safety and swimming. Many more have been given instruction in these fields.

This month as a community service first aid are being offered in Berkeley fire stations and West Berkeley Health Center.

"We appeal to all Berkeley residents to support March campaign with money and their services if possible, so the Red Cross can continue to maintain community and financial ability to relieve suffering of disaster," Daughtry concluded.

Project 1 at Cornell Playground Features Structural Safety

"It's not completed by any means, but it has already begun to serve its purpose."

With these words, Jean Tenret, designer of Cornell playground, returned to Project 1, the climbing structure. He stated further that every climbing apparatus contains built-in hazards that can never be totally eliminated, but that safety has been and will continue to be a supreme factor both in the designing and building of the structure, and that every effort is being made to assure maximum safety for the children. He also said that although the work crew is energetic, it's small, and if he had more manpower, money, and materials, the completion of Project 1 would be rapid, and he and his committee could then turn their attention to another pressing problem, relieving the congestion in the school cafeteria by constructing outdoor eating facilities.

Immunization For Rubella At City Hall

Returns from Albany's Mothers' March showed that the Rubella (German measles) immunization level is low, stated Dr. McMahan, health officer of Albany.

Out of 1140 children from one through 11 years old, only 573 were known to have had either the German measles or the shots.

Albany Health Department urges all mothers whose children between one and 12 have not had this immunization, to obtain it for their children. This immunization is available at the Albany City Hall on any Tuesday between 1 and 3 p.m., free of charge.

Thanks to the March of Dimes for bringing these facts to our attention; now parents are urged to correct the situation as soon as possible, stated Dr. McMahan.

Ear and Eye Testing for Preschoolers

Co-chairmen Anita Tronoff and Nancy Taussig announce plans for another screening center for pre-school children.

Hearing and vision will be tested by trained volunteers during the last week of April at the Methodist Church, Stannage and Marin.

Last year's testing program revealed problems in several of the pre-schoolers who came with their mothers to play the ear and eye "games" with the testers. These children were referred to specialists after rescreening at the center.

"The purpose of this testing is to determine and begin to solve problems of sight and hearing before they can cause the child trouble in school," said Mrs. Taussig.

Volunteers who would like to train to become testers should call Mrs. Taussig at 524-8249, or Mrs. Tronoff at 526-4522.

Ave., and their AFS "son" from Peru, Guillermo Malqui, will greet breakfasting guests. Chefs, waiters, scullery maids for the breakfast, all volunteers, have promised the usual prompt and cheerful service for which AFS breakfasts have become known over the years. As part of the traditional festivities, AFS students from France, Australia, The Philippines, Italy, South Africa, Yugoslavia and Peru will speak. Miss Carolyn Heath, Albany's returnee from Uganda will also tell of her experiences. The program will be continuous all morning long.

The breakfast is the major money raising event for the Albany AFS chapter and the Albany High School AFS Clubs. Funds raised will bring a foreign student to Albany next year as well as provide funds for an Albany High School student to live abroad, according to Mr. and Mrs. Errol Fletcher, AFS chapter co-presidents. They added that AFS International scholarships enable 3,000 students from more than 70 foreign countries to attend American secondary schools all over the U.S. for a year of study and first-hand experience of America.

In addition, more than 1,200 teenage Americans leave for periods of three months to a year to study and live with families abroad and to understand their ideas and cultures. Since 1956, 15 foreign students have been "sons" and "daughters" of Albany families and about the same number of Albany teenagers have traveled and lived abroad with families in places as far apart as Indonesia and Finland.

The AFS chapter invites everyone to enjoy breakfast and meet the AFS students. Bring a friend ... a neighbor ... and join the rest of Albany for breakfast this Sunday.

Vaudeville

Show by VFW At Memorial

An evening of fun—dancing, a vaudeville show, and door prizes —is planned for an expected 300 members and guests of the 14th District of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. All this is to happen at the Albany Veterans Building, 1325 Portland Ave., on Saturday, Mar. 13, beginning at 8 p.m. The price is $1.50 per person. Proceeds will be used by the VFW District to support its programs, such as hospital, youth, Americanism, community, and service to veterans. District Commander Lee Lucas, San Pablo, and District Auxiliary President Billie Green, Richmond, have appointed District Junior Vice Commander Les Beth, Richmond, as general chairman of the event.

Chairman Beth, who is also the show's stage manager, states there are 20 acts scheduled and a big evening is foreseen. An important addition is John K. Chapel, well known news-caster, lecturer and traveler, who will be the master of ceremonies.

All performers are novice or amateur local talent and are donating their time and energy to make the night a success. The shows of the previous years have presented a large variety of acts including: a Can-Can chorus line, tap dancers, singers, pantomimes and magicians. Each year a different theme is chosen for those who wish to wear costumes. This year's theme is "The Roaring Twenties." A dance is held after the show.

Rubin Roy soared to a new triple jump record of 39 feet 2 1/2 inches, and the 440 relay team sprinted their way to a record breaking 45.5 seconds. In other competition, Emil Shaffer was a double winner, winning the long jump in 21 feet and the 180 low hurdles. Dotson Wilson won the 440 in 52.6 and Power House Eric De La Torre grinded his way to a 10:34.00 2-mile.
